MENLO PARK RECORDER

A PAPER DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF MENLO PARK AND SAN MATEO COUNTY

VOLUME 11 — MENLO PARK, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1933. — No. 5

The Commentator

By Bill

It was with a great deal of pleasure that I noted the fine attendance at the Chamber of Commerce banquet last Monday evening. The food was exceptionally fine, the speakers interesting, and those present congenial. What more can we ask, for one time. Let's have more of these get together sessions and boost the city out of the rut it seems to be in. The ladies of the Legion Auxiliary are to be complimented on the manner in which they served and prepared the food.

I think Menlo Park residents should give Fire Chief Thomas Cuff a big vote of thanks for the fine work he is doing toward cleaning up the city. He is the busiest man in Menlo Park these days, and the way he is wrecking old fire traps, removing trees, cleaning up yards and ohterwise beautifying the city surely deserves credit. Go to it Chief!

I heard the other day that John Morey will shortly start work on a fine 45-acre picnic ground near the Holy Cross Cemetery. Johnny is a real progressive citizen and we know he has done much for his home city. What Menlo Park needs is a few more hustlers like friend John and watch it grow. Again I say go to it John!

Someone said that the postoffice is to be moved over on to the high way near Derry's Feed and Fuel store. That will be fine for both the patrons of the office and for the postal employees. We hope that the work will be started at once.

LEGION AUXILIARY BAZAAR DECEMBER 1st AND 2nd

The bazaar to be held in the Legion Hall on Oak Grove ovenue, will be another proof of the ability and willingness of the American Legion Auxiliary to serve . Many beautiful pieces of hand work will be displayed and offered for sale at attractive prices.

The penny dance, the Bingo table and the fish pond will afford a lot of profitable amusement.

The public is most cordially invited to come to the Legion Hall on Oak Grove avenue on Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2.

NEW ADDRESSES

F. E. Gordon, Berkeley Way, near Coleman; Misses Moeller, Fair Oaks Lane, near Middlefield Road; Mr. Cutet, Santa Cruz avenue, near South Lemon; Mrs. Shaw, 113 Yale Road; Mrs. Philpott, 15th avenue, near Middlefield Road; Mrs. Alice W. Brown, Atherton avenue, near Austin.

On account of the bazaar to be held on the first and second of December, the regular monthly card party given by the American Legion Auxiliary, No. 443, will be postponed from the first of December to Friday, December 8.

The American Legion Auxiliary prepared and served the Turkey banquet for the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce on Monday, at the Central school.

The monthly sing in Ward 17, Veterans Hospital, will be held on Monday, December 21st instead of Tuesday, December 22nd, at the request of Colonel Lache.

The Northern California Police Officers' Association held a luncheon at the Hotel President in Palo Alto . Many interesting speeches were made.

Tuesday, November 21st the County Council, American Legion will entertain the various units of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Florence Chess will preside. A good crowd from Menlo Park will attend.

On Tuesday, November 21 at 8:30 p. m., the Ladies Auxiliary of the Congregation Beth Jacob will hold a Turkey Whist game. Tickets 25 cents.

Bond Election For City Hall Likely

The city council last Tuesday night took steps to call a bond issue for the proposed city hall, for the construction of which the city has filed application for a federal grant and loan totaling $20,000.

Decision to hold the election was not final, but the balloting, if held, will be in conjunction with the voting on the statewide water proposition in the special election on December 19.An ordinance setting th's date was introduced by the city attorney by the reading of the title only.

Under the present fund application Menlo Park is asking for a federal loan under a lease contract arrangement, but it has been indicated by federal officials that such an arrangement is not favored, a bond issue being preferred. If federal funds are received under the present form of application, plans for the bond issue would be dropped.

The city attorney, who proposed the calling of the bond election to the council suggested that the issue should be 18-year securities for a total of $18,000. It would not be necessary to issue all of these bonds if city should receive a full 30 per percent federal grant, he said.

A communication from the Menlo Business Association asked the inclusion of a recreation center in plans for the city hall if possible, but Mayor Weeden pointed out the fact that the plans had already been submitted to the federal administrator.

As the result of a petition submitted by the Business Association asking for a 50 per cent reduction in the business license fees, the council will meet next Tuesday even ing with a merchants' committee to discuss the proposal. In asking for the license fee cut, the petition asserted that the budget showed that there would be in excess of a $5,000 balance in the city's general fund next July. The infliction of a 10 per cent penalty for delinquency after 10 days past the first of each quarter and the hiring of a special license fee collector at a salary of $300 a year were also protested. A license fee cut would still leave some $3,000 as a balance at the end of the year, the petitioners stated.

Declaring that he would like to see the complete abolition of the business license fee, Mayor Weeden stated that the council was not trying to build up a big surplus but that the city would have to have a reserve if tax delinquencies this year should prove to be higher. He also asserted that the city would have only $2,000 in its treasury at the end of the year and pointed out that the present chief of police together with the license fee collector was bing paid less than the former chief, who was also charged with collections.

Councilman E. H. Hart stated that he did not think the police chief was the proper official to collect the license fees. Referring to the budget surplus Councilman E. J. Crane declared that there were several things in the budget that "were not right."

Henry Carroll and Jean B. Hoss talked on behalf of the merchants. Both declared that the license system was unjust.

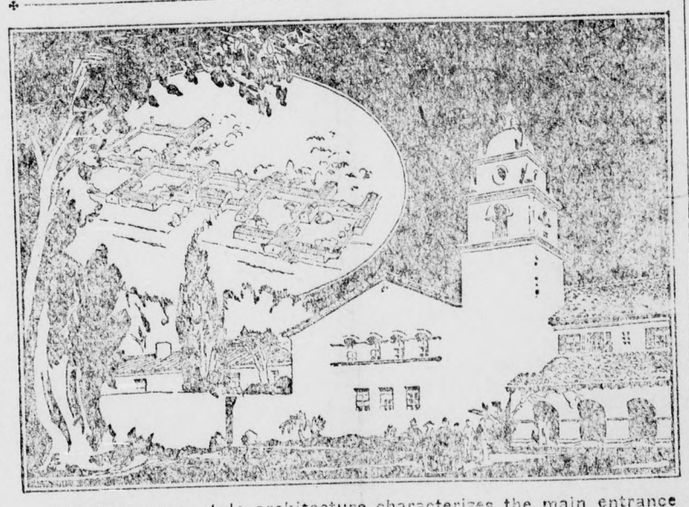
When the councilmen said that they were willing t otake the matter under consiredation, the representatives of the association agreed to name a committee to investigate the matter with the council.

A resolution endorsing the proposal to widen the Bayshore highway underpass at South San Francisco to lessen traffic hazards was adopted by the council at the request of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, which is campaigning for the project.

The Blue Moon dance hall was granted a permit for a dance on Wednesday evening, November 29.

The price of standard grades of gasoline dropped one cent a gallon today, making the price 17 cents.

WEST'S GREATEST STATE HOSPITAL



Mediterranean style architecture characterizes the main entrance to the administration and hospital unit of the custodial male group, Camarillo. Six units under construction are shown in the inset. Ultimate cost of the buildings required for the west's greatest state hospital will be in the neighborhood of $6,000,000 and the ultimate patient capacity will be 6,000.

CAPITOL NEWS

(By WNU Service)

A strong plea for business and civic groups to recognize that they have a partnership with government were made by Controller Ray L. Riley at the State Chamber of Commerce annual convention in Los Angeles recently.

His two major recommendations were: that the expenditure control provision in the Riley-Stewart tax relief plan limiting local expenditure increases to not more than 5 per cent over the preceding year be continued in effect by the legislature after the two-year mandatory period ends; and, that business and civic groups assist in mapping plans for reorganization and consolidation of all governmental agencies to eliminate unnecessary services and make possible cuts in governmental overhead.

Rolland A. Vandergrift, finance director, who is attempting to force Riley to pay funds from the emergency coffers for support of several state departments and subdivisions of departments hurt through slashes by the legislature, has plans for saving $25,000,000 through consolidation of governmental units and functions.

He advocates: consolidation of many cities and counties, and thereby consolidating city and county offices; consolidation of overlapping state functions; elimination of all justices of the peace and transfer of their work to municipal or county judges; consolidation of the state's 3600 school districts; and, adoption of photographic recording methods for all governmental units.

Another advocate of consolidation of governmental functions and new economy measures is Treasurer Charles G. (Gus) Johnson, who believes among other things that Vandegrift's department of finance should be abolished.

The California State Brewers Association have been informed by Riley that licenses under which they have been making 3.2 beer will terminate December 6 when the State liquor control act becomes affective.

Assemblyman Henry P. Meehan of Oakland stirred political souls to their depths here recently when he proposed establishment of a legalized state lottery as a new source of governmental revenue. He pointed out a national lottery was lifting the tax burden in France.

Meehan indicated he might sponsor such a bill at the next legislative session.

If the legislature is called into special session, the State Board of Equalization will present a tabulation to show how much of the 2½ per cent sales tax is derived from foodstuffs. This was brought about, it was said, by much agitation for exemption of life's necessities.

Father Burke Given Farewell Party By His Friends In This City

In farewell to Father Bernard Burke, who has been transferred from the Menlo Park parish to St. Agnes Church in San Francisco 125 members and friends of the Church of the Nativity gathered one evening this week at the parish hall of the church for a banquet. There was a program of music, readings ead talks arranged by Joseph Morey, chairman of the committee in charge. Among those who were present and paid tribute to Father Burke's work in the parish were Father Thos. Kennedy, pastor of the Church of the Nativity Father Edwin Casey, assistant pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Church, and Mrs. Peter E. Bush, who represented the Mother's Club of St. Joseph's School.

George Walsh acted as toastmaster. The program included vocal solos by Mrs. Robert Duryea, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Mouat; songs by Miss Ruth Bracesco, and tap dances by Stuart Hook, Stanley Hook, Lorranie Alexander, and Billy Harms. Mrs. Mouat played a group of piano selections and Mrs. Dan Sullivan gave two readings.

Father Burke told his friends of his grief in leaving Menlo Park, his first parist and the field to which he had given his enthusiastic devotion for three and a half years. He has left for St. Agnes parish, where he is assistant pastor. Father Jeremiah Gleeson of St. James' Church, San Francisco, will succeed him at Menlo Park.

PRESBYTERIAN BAZARR NEXT WEDNESDAY

The women of the Auxiliary of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar on next Wednesday, November 22, afternoon and evening. There will be a benefit sale offering many articles of fancy work, novelties, cooked food, fish pond for children etc. The committees in charge are as follows: Tea, Mrs. J. H. Heltzel; fancy work, shell novelties, etc., Mrs. F. W. Meyer and Mrs. A. W. Rogers; aprons, Mrs. B. J. Haight and Mrs. Geo. Peterson; cooked food, Mrs. Bob Hipp and Mrs. Harry Lewis; fish pond, Mrs. H. H. Bearce and Miss Esther Bearce; refreshments, hot dogs, cider, etc., Harold Wild, Francis Johnson and Gene Bone; candy, Mrs. W. L. Bone and Mrs. H. C. King; art table, Young People; play, director, Mrs. A. Snover.

The big event contributing to the fun of the occasion will be the play, "The Womanless Wedding" which will be put on at eight o'clock, free with voluntary offering. The cast will be as follows:

The Minister	Gene Bone
The Groom	B. J. Haight
The Bride	Mr. Francis Johnson
The Butler	W. L. Bone

"Tugboat Annie" At New Menlo

zThrills, laught and heart throbs all mingle in the reunion of Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery, beloved team of "Min and Bill," who are again co-starred at the New Menlo Theater next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in "Tugboat Annie," filmization of the famous Saturday Evening Post stories of a battling feminine tugboat captain and her sanguinary adventures.

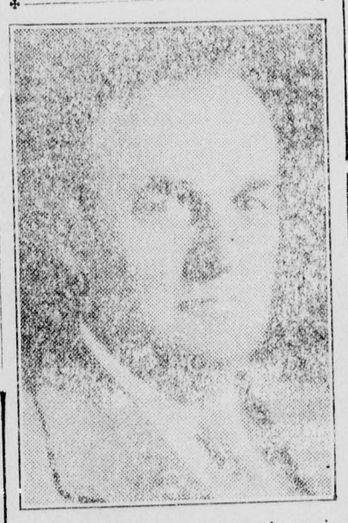
Miss Dressler plays Annie, with Beery cast as her shiftless but good-natured mate, Captain Terry. They battle and make up again for countless laughs; there is a dramatic not of mother love and a gigantic thrill in the climax when Beery enters a blazing firebox to repair a boiler at sea and thus save a storm-tossed liner.

Most of the picture was filmed in Puget Sound in the actual localities of the Norman Reilly Raine stories, which goves the picture an extraordinary sence of authenticity. Miss Dressler pilots a sea-going tug and competes with the whole water front in the vivid maritime drama, directed by Mervyn Le Roy of "Gold Diggers" and "Little Ceasar" fame.

Episodes in several of the Post stories are used. Annie and Terry raise their boy to be a sea captain; he seeks to remove them from the squalid tug that is thir home. Terry lapses into his old drinking habits and is disowned by his son, but comes through in the stirring sacrifice at the finish.

Robert Young, who scored in "Hell Below," is seen as the young captain. Maureen O'Sullivan has the romantic feminine lead, and the cast also includes Willard Robertson, Tammany Young, Frankie Darro, Jack Pennick and Paul Hurst.

RE-ELECTED



C. C. Teague, re-elected president of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, is one of the state's agricultural leaders recently in Washington, working toward betterment of California's leading industry. As President of the State Chamber of Commerce, he led recovery discussions at the annual meeting in Los Angeles.

Sequoia Hi School Activities Told

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED

Adding to his already fine collection, a handsomely illustrated set of nine volumes on the history of the United States, by Edward S. Ellis, were donated to Mr. D. F. Gatchel's history epartment by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baughn.

Mr Gatchel now has in his class room a library of more than three hundred volumes dealing with the history of this country and the rest of the world. A complete set of Chamber's encyclopedias and one of the latest editions of the Atlas of the World are also included in this library.

These books, which Mr. Gatchel says are for the benefit of Sequoians, have been donated by students and their parents for the most part.

DEBATE PRACTIC STARTS

"Resolved that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control," is the question to be debated at Sequoia Union high school's second practice debate with the Girl's high school of San Francisco Friday at Girls' high school. The first debate was held Wednesday with the same school at Sequoia.

Next Wednesday and Friday the Cherokee team will meet Lowell debaters.

This years' team consists of Wilbur Woodhams and Billy Dusel, affirmative; Bob Steiner and Josephine Hogevoll, negative; and Alan Meyerhoffer and Bob Bettencourt, alternates. Meyerhoffer and Bettencourt are sophomores and are the only inexperienced members.

Rehearsals for "Holiday" the delightful three-act comedy by Philip Barry to be produced by the Sequoia Players November 24 and 25, are well under way, and according to Claude van Patten, drama instructor, the cast has shown itself to be well fitted for the parts taken.

This play, which is said to be Barry's best, shows an interestng varation of the poor boy-rch girl theme. The setting is a modern American home of the upper class and shows the old, old difference between the money-loving and the fun-loving people.

The general manager of the production is Roy Crothers. Under him are publicity, Jack Knight; research, John Crothers; property manager, Harold Hise; stage, Carl Ellertson; rehearsals, Francis Hutchinson and costumes Kay Washburn. Students assisting are George Crothers, Charles Fuller, Sophie Dell Aquilla, Kay Kalenborn, and Elsie Trevillyan.

The Sequoia Players feel that this play is to be their finest production and feel they can guarantee an excellent entertainment.

With all seats reserved, the tickets are 25 and 40 cents.

COMMERCE CHAMBER HOLDS BANQUET MONDAY NIGHT

Last Monday night the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce held a banquet in the auditorium of the Central school in this city, which was attended by one hundred and ten people.

The Turkey dinner was well prepared and well served by the ladies of the local American Legion Auxiliary and was enjoyed by all.

President John H. Sullivan told of the various projects that the organization had undertaken and of the success of each.

Congressman John J. McGrath spoke at length on the needs for rapid transit on the peninsula, and also told of projects undertaken by the federal government.

Winfield Scott, gave an interesting account of railroading in general and also pointed out the necessity of procuring rapid transit on the peninsula before the bay bridges are completed if the peninsula wishes to get its share of residents.

A delegation of Southern Pacific officials, headed by Jos. Veverka were also present.

California's greatest northern gridiron classic will be played Saturday when Santa Clara and St. Mary's tangle at Kezar, San Francisco, in the "big little game." The two shown at the top are expected to have much to say about how the final score stands. Gordon Partee, Gael back, is at the right, and "Coffin Corner" Joe Paglia of the Broncos is shown booting one.

Buildings---Trees Removed By Unemployed Men

Under the able directio nof Fire Chief Thomas Cuff, a large crew of men from the ranks of the unemployed have been working during the past few days removing old buildings that are fire hazards and a menace to public safety and in general cleaning up the town, taking out trees, and doing other odd jobs.

A short time ago the old saloon building on Oak Grove avenue was removed and the placed cleaned up by the Chief and his men.

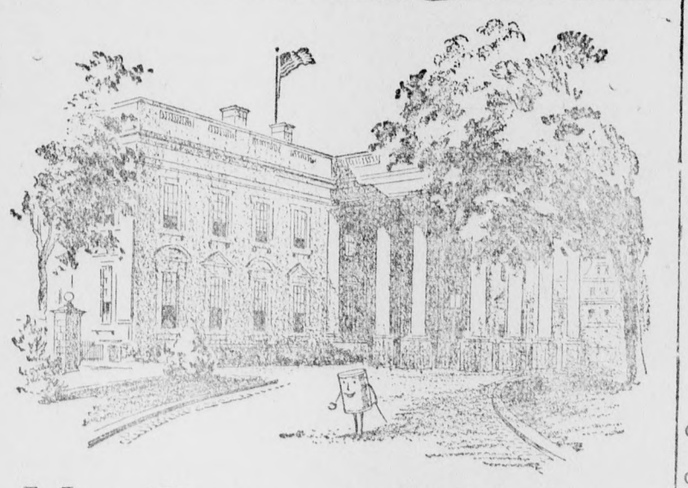
Later two sheds were removed from the rear of the Larrecou building, and lastly the gum trees in the rear of the M & H Restaurant are being taken out.

LARRECOU & MALONEY OPEN LIQUOR STORE

Justin Larrecou and Wm. Maloney have opened a wholesale and retail liquor store near the north boundary of Atherton, where they carry a full line of beers, wine and will later handle all kinds of liquor.

At the present time they specialize in Schlitz Beer on draft.

A delivery service is maintained for the benefit of all and family trade is solicited.



Mrs. Roosevelt Is Modern

THERE are five formal state dinners at the White House every year and at least half a dozen official receptions. It is easy to plan and provide for these because the dates and approximate number of guests are known well in advance. But, in these days of the N.R.A., the "brain trust," Cuban complications and a dozen other subjects, all of prime interest to the President, it is impossible even to approximate the number of guests who may be invited at the last moment to any given meal.

The New Deal Way

But Mrs. Roosevelt is modern, and has at her disposition one of the best trained household staffs in the world. Some of the servants there have served through several administrations, and they are imperturbable before any culinary crisis.

Such a crisis, and also hysterics, can be avoided by means of canned foods according to a recent interview with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in the New York World-Telegram. The girl who has hysterics when her husband telephones that he is bringing an office mate home to dinner when there are only three chops in the house has a lot to learn, according to the First Lady of the Land. In a well-run household, she believes, there should be certain things in reserve—canned foods that can be rushed into service at a moment's notice if the dinner that was planned seems rather slim for company. That, she holds, is the modern way.*

Senator Roy Fellom of San Francisco recently requested Governor Rolph to call a special session of the legislature, costing about $310,000 for four days, to consider taxation of hard liquors which, he believes, would produce $2,000,000 a year for the state. Fellom favors a light tax as a blow at bootlegging.

Rolph's answer was that he believed a special session should be called only as a matter of life and death.

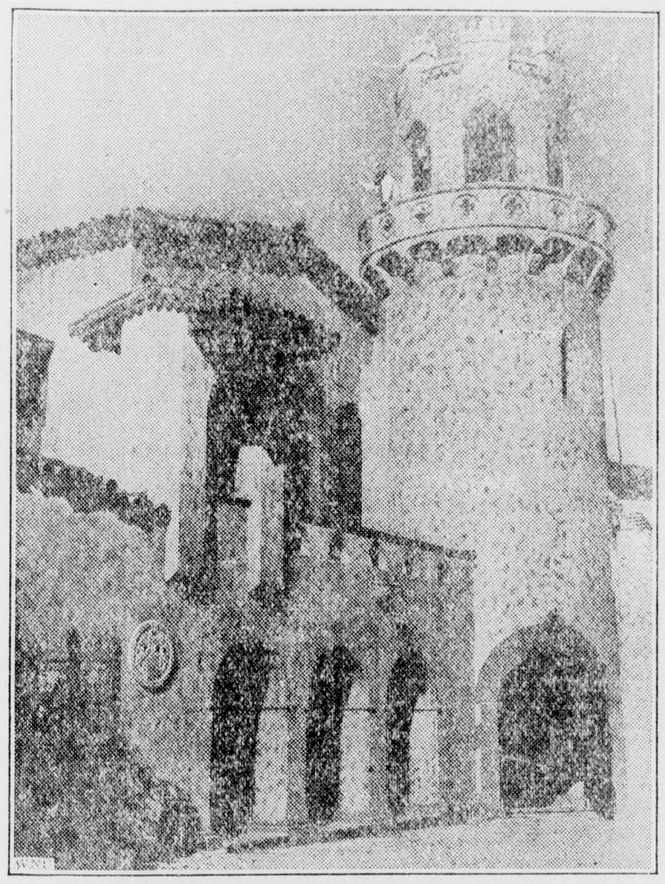
FEARS "SOFTIES" PLAYGROUND



"Death Valley Scotty" has announced he will abandon his $3,000,000 castle in Grapevine canyon, seeking a more remote site in the valley for a bigger and better dwelling. He fears Death Valley will become overrun with "softies" since it has been declared a national park.

Fred E. Stewart, state board of equalization member, announces that lithographers and engravers manufacturing labels such as appear on beer bottles or canned goods must pay a sales tax on them. A reconsideration of the ruling has been asked and further study will be given the problem.

Dr. Charles B. Pinkham, executive officer of the state board of medical examiners, agrees with the German Nazi in ordering sterilization of feeble-minded and insane persons, but differs with proposals to extend the edict to include habitual drunkards. Pinkham believes also in sterilization of habitual criminals.

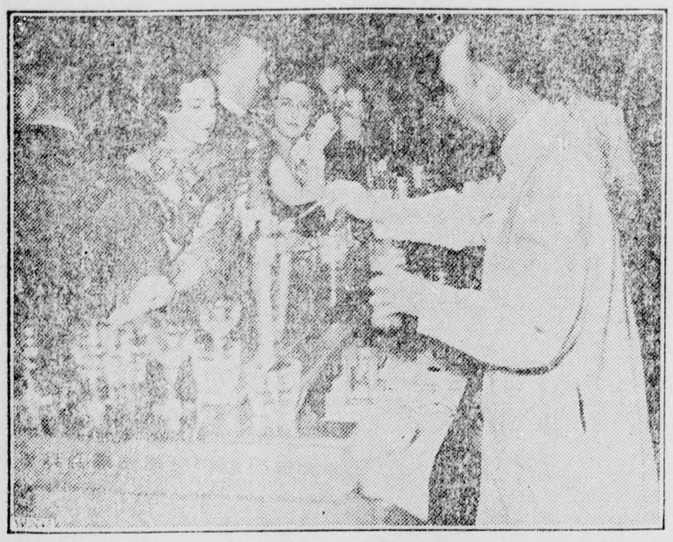
CELEBRATING DRY LAW DEATH



In many California cities, when returns stated that the 36th state had voted for repeal of the 18th amendment, celebrations began. The scene pictured above is typical of the repeal parties in many California hotels on the night prohibition died. This particular one was taken in San Francisco's leading hotel.

CAPITOL NEWS

(By WNU Service)

The latest attempt to effect a recall of Governor Rolph has met with more than smiles or oral rebuke. His Honor has ordered C. S. Morrill, chief of the bureau of criminal investigation, to discover if the forces behind the plan are using extortion methods. If they are, Rolph has ordered, "jail them."

The Governor meanwhile has found at least one more outlet for the dissemination of information which he wishes made public. A Los Angeles district paper has announced it carries what it terms Governor Rolph's column. It contains, the editor states, political material provided either by the governor or an authorized spokesman of his administration.

A. A. Brock, State director of agriculture, has moved J. C. Carey, his assistant, and four clerks back to Sacramento from the San Francisco office of the department. Service branches only from now on will be maintained in the bay city and Los Angeles.

Senator Will R. Sharkey, Martinez publisher and solon, is advocating exemption from property taxes all California homes of less than $5,000 assessed value. He declares he would be willing to see the State sales tax rate boosted ½ a per cent if homes of small wage earners can be exempted from property levies and foodstuffs exempted from the assessment on sales.

Californians are just crazy about the depression, according to Dr. J. M. Toner, director of institutions. He says business conditions have filled mental hospitals of the State to the boiling point. A 62 per cent increase has been recorded since 1932.

Claude C. Brown has been appointed chief engineer of the State Railroad Commission by Clyde L. Seavey, president, to succeed A. G. Mott. Mott resigned recently to become head of the utility valuation department of the State Equalization Board. J. E. McCaffrey, assistant engineer in the Los Angeles office, succeeds Brown as head of the gas and electric department.

A. G. Mott will supervise the valuation of public utility property which, in 1935, will be restored to local assessment rolls for city and county taxation.

There are 4000 more patients in state institutions than there are adequate accommodations for, Director of Institutions Toner told superintendents of mental hospitals and schools in a recent meeting here.

WHAT A DAY IT IS

when a child is born! Is it a boy or a girl? Is its head well-shaped? Are its little legs straight? Has it a lusty cry? What joy if all is well!

Scott's Emulsion is so fine for babies; it's the very best cod liver oil—emulsified, like mother's milk, for baby's delicate digestion. It is rich in vitamins A and D, both so necessary for proper growth and bone development.

You can't begin too early. Get Scott's at once. It's pure, safe—celebrated for sixty years . . . and better today than ever. All druggists —60c and $1.20.

HERE THEY ARE

HAVE you ever wondered how many foods are canned in any large quantities? Here is the list. Your grocer can get you any of these foods which he does not happen to carry. The letter E opposite a food indicates that it is packed in sanitary enamel-lined cans and thus retains all of its natural color.
